

North Hills Monthly

Your Premier Regional Magazine™

2025 Media Kit

WHO WE ARE

North Hills Monthly, your premier community magazine™, has been serving the North Hills' community for 24 years! Each month, we reach more than 40,000 readers with stories that focus on the people and places that make Pittsburgh's northern suburbs unique. Every issue is filled with fascinating personality profiles, health, family and education trends, news about local nonprofits and businesses, and information about what's happening in your neighborhood.

As the premier source of community news for people who live, work and play in the North Hills, our mission is to provide our readers with well-written, informative and entertaining articles about the place they call home. We don't run canned information or consider press releases news. Our writers know the area and its people well, which enables us to target our editorial specifically to the communities we serve.

WE'RE SOCIAL

We're not just a print publication. We want to reach readers in every way we can, so we've expanded our digital offerings to include an up-to-the-minute website, daily posts on Facebook, photos on Instagram, LinkedIn and more. Our goal is not just to extend our brand, but to share our advertisers' messages with an even larger audience.

We average about 5,000 unique views a month on our Facebook page, and that number is growing daily as we continue to offer even more content. In 2025, we will begin offering even more digital advertising opportunities to our clients, including sponsored pages and events, banner ads, video links and more.

About Us

WHERE WE GO

North Hills Monthly is the best medium with which to reach Pittsburgh's northern suburbs. We cover all of northern Allegheny and southern Butler counties, including every community from Butler to the North Side, from Fox Chapel to Sewickley Township. We publish a minimum of 8,000 issues monthly, with increased distribution during special events.

Our magazine is distributed in hundreds of high-traffic areas in the North Hills, including local hospitals, grocery stores, restaurants, retail and commercial businesses and corporate offices.

WHY YOU SHOULD ADVERTISE WITH US

North Hills' residents pick up our magazine and they frequent the businesses of our advertisers. For this reason, many of our advertisers have been with us since our first issue, and we continue to add new advertisers every day. We offer financial incentives for clients who choose to advertise with us when we run special sections, such as in our Annual Education Issue or in our Holiday Shopper section. Each magazine is printed full-color on glossy paper.

Advertorials: Clients who advertise in one of our special sections will receive advertorial space in which to feature their businesses. Advertorials are written by the client, or can be written by NHM staff for an additional fee. Advertisers who commit to a longer contract will receive a discount on their ad and advertorial space.

First Persons: These 600 or 800-word advertorials are written by the client and include a photo, showcase the client's business and are provided at a special rate. Clients can choose to spotlight a specific product, store, service or procedure in a way that educates the reader and sets the business apart from its competition.
